

Don't Waste Your Life

Genesis 12:1-4

Questions

1. Typically, how does one view their own country? How do we view countries that are not our own? How does that compare to how God views them?
2. What are some practical steps we can take to cultivate a love for and demonstration of our love for other countries/peoples?
3. Why does God call Abram? Is this the way we often see why God has called us to be his children?
4. Does Abram have some 'legitimate' excuses for not obeying God? What type of excuses do we often employ?
5. Practically speaking, what is at least one thing you can start doing today to show your obedience to love the nations?
6. How does the gospel motivate us to reach out to and care for peoples not like ourselves?